About WERC

The Capital District Women's Employment & Resource Center (WERC) is a not-for-profit organization that helps women gain self-confidence, enhance their job skills and successfully return to the workforce. Through your donations, WERC changes lives, enriching their families and benefiting our communities.

The Center has provided quality workforce development services to more than 8,000 women from both Albany and Rensselaer Counties since 1998, assisting them to successfully find employment or improve their employment and their quality of life.
